Box chic

If toting lunch is a resolution for health or money, you might as well feel stylish doing it ($22, momastore.org).

11 Authentic comfort food

If you're expecting complex, simmered-all-day ragùs, you're in for a treat. Julia della Croce's new homage to Italian cooking is filled with surprisingly simple fare, like spaghetti with sautéed radicchio and macaroni with quick broccoli sauce—just the things for cold January nights ($30, Kyle Books).
